

Project Update: May 2006

Distribution of the leaflets of the “Wanted for Alive” campaign for the students of the Serra da Canastra region.

The boxes for the collection of the filled forms of the “Wanted for Alive” campaign were placed at strategic places for the local population.

Students attending the lectures of the Brazilian Merganser Conservation Program aiming the discussion of environmental issues mainly the conservation of the water resources.

During the lectures at the schools of the Serra da Canastra region, the Brazilian Merganser was performed by an actor.

General view of the Serra da Canastra region

Top: Brazilian Merganser (Mergus octosetaceus). Bottom: Habitat of the Brazilian Merganser at Serra da Canastra.

