

Project Update: September 2009

The project activities during September 2009 were:

- 1) Group of native Palestinian plants was introduced to the biodiversity garden; the plants included Rosemarinus officinalis and Teucrium capitatum (Labiatae), Ziziphus spinachristi, and Retama raetam.
- 2) Cactus plants were introduced to the biodiversity garden.
- 3) Cones of conifers were collected for the natural museum.
- 4) More plant specimens were introduced to the herbarium.
- 5) Documentation of botanical information on collected or planted specimens.

